Action on Gender Equality

Gender Pay Gaps

The gender pay gap is the difference in average or median earnings between women and men. It is a measure of how we value the contribution of women and men in the workforce. The gender pay gap is not to be confused with women and men being paid the same for the same, or comparable, job – this is equal pay. Equal pay for equal work is a legal requirement in Australia. However, illegal instances of unequal pay can still be one of the many drivers of the gender pay gap. Closing the gender pay gap is important for Australia's economic future and reflects our aspiration to be an equal and fair society for all.

Over the 2024-2025 reporting period, the organisation regularly reported to the Executive Leadership Team and our governing Committees ensuring the Gender Pay Gap remains front and centre for our leaders. The organisation also set targets for Women in Senior Leadership positions (40%), and sought balanced candidate pools (50%) at the shortlist stage during recruitment and selection. We identified processes to support reducing the pay gap. For example, the creation of remuneration bands that links pay with size (scope and scale) of job, pay equity is considered at all pay decision points - at appointment, annual reviews and job change, and we have commenced a broad review of our recruitment and selection process.

Employee Support for Parents and Carers

Paid Parental Leave

Parental leave policies are designed to support and protect working parents around the time of childbirth or adoption of a child and when children are young. It's important that it's a policy that's available to all parents, irrespective of gender, <sup>14</sup>recognising the equally important role of all parents in caregiving.
